CLASS PROPHECY

The class of 1958 meet again after 20 years, at the just completed million dollar school building at the original location.

We first lay eyes upon the Principal K. Jones with his usual solumn look of discomfort. Standing behind Mr. Jones is Mrs. Crum, the English teacher, followed by Mr. McIntosh and Mr. Wills, the largest and loudest of the faculty.

After 20 years Mr. Jones has not yet learned that it takes less muscles to smile than to frown. Although he did not always do things the easy way as his classes so well remember.

Mrs. Crum is still bragging about the good deal she made 20 years ago when she traded for her present auto. She would like a different car, but she is still paying the difference.

Mr. McIntosh now owns the only Architectual Firm in the state of Kansas, but in his spare time is still working to improve his plastic paint formula. Due to his drawing ability Oneida now has a new school building and a United Nations building located at the North edge of town.

Mr. Wills, always a firm believer in Clenderalls, now weighs 450 lb. The only thing is, he doesn't drive his Chevy anymore, he has to use an armored car. His family is now large enough for the use of a traffic cop.

First to arrive is our own Major Doris Campbell of the Womens Navy Corps, among 100 handsome body guards and a 21 gun salute. The golden Satellite had to be parked on the highway for it was to wide for the side street called main. She volunteered to be the first to travel to the moon, but her fellow officers thought this meeting was more important.

Kenneth E. Nott is next to arrive, he has gallantly taken the place of ELVIS (you remember) Presley. He in his spare time has become a great wrestler, one of his most frequent opponents is his conscious. He has collected the Rubber that he lost from his tires during and after High School, and has become a rival for U.S. Rubber Co., by the development of Notts Rubber Inc. As a remembrance of the Old Days, he has preserved his 1950 customized Ford.

Edgar Claycamp is last but not least to arrive, although he never was quite on time. We have discovered that he has become the Governor of Kentucky, with a staff of relatives. Although he is the tallest of the three, he has never found a girl to meet his level, but like the tall man at the parade, he is still looking. After he has closed the deal of purchasing Russia, he plans to retire. Rumors are that he plans to marry the equalivalent of (Yesteryears) Marilyn Monroe.

The menu consisted of everything from Hot Dogs to Caviar and Soda Pop to Champagne. After this very enjoyable meal and visit, they all said good-bye and gave their best wishes, and solemn promises to remember the Old and Gay Days of Oneida Rural High School.

The Christmas program was held Dec. 18, 1957. The opening number was "Frosty the Snowman." Frosty was Charles Milne. He statelty walked across the floor during the song.

Billy Quigley played the part of Santa. He sailed the ocean blue in his canoe as the children sang "Christmas Island." Elvyn Jones hung his dads red sock on the Cocoanut tree during the same number.

An unusual play called "Young Tennessee and Old Sam" was enuoyed. Harold and Jimmy Barrett were the hillbillies with the big bare feet.

Larry Lee Boltz played the part of the mule. Rex Russells dog Duke played a big role in the same number.
